1. What is law, and the Kenyan legal system

Law is the body of rules, enforceable by the state, that governs conduct within a society.

Kenya's legal system is organised around a court hierarchy — from subordinate courts, through the High Court, the Court of Appeal, up to the Supreme Court as the final appellate authority — with each level generally bound by the legal principles established by the courts above it.

Sample of the practice examination (Question One of Five)

Note on format. The full paper includes a complete practice examination laid out the way a real KASNEB CPA paper is laid out — timed, five compulsory 20-mark questions — so you can rehearse the exact exam format before sitting the real thing. This is an original practice paper, not a reproduction of any actual KASNEB past paper.
