1. The Kenyan legal system and sources of law

Kenya's court hierarchy runs from subordinate courts, through the High Court, the Court of Appeal, to the Supreme Court. Sources of law include the Constitution, legislation, case law, and customary law.

Sample of the practice examination (Question One of Five)

Note on format. The full paper includes a complete practice examination laid out the way a real KASNEB CS paper is laid out — timed, five compulsory 20-mark questions — so you can rehearse the exact exam format before sitting the real thing. This is an original practice paper, not a reproduction of any actual KASNEB past paper.

CS FOUNDATION LEVEL — INTRODUCTION TO LAW AND GOVERNANCE (PRACTICE PAPER)
